

Shana Rae Samora for RNC Delegate

Raised to stand for what's right even if I stand alone, I am ready stand my ground In Milwaukee.

My political fight started at five years old walking precincts beside my aunt and uncle to elect Ronald Reagan. Born and raised in the once beautiful state of California, I have borne witness to the catastrophic results of the GOP and the church in their continual appeasement of the insatiable demands of the left.

The hour is late and the future of our children and grandchildren hangs on us. Will we stand? Will "We The People" finally take back our position as the rightful government of our land? Or, will we continue to appease and bow down to our own representatives?

I choose to stand. I choose to fight for the country I love. I've marched on Pennsylvania Avenue, rolled with the trucker convoy, and searched tirelessly for truth from coast to coast in a sea of lies. If you send me to Milwaukee I will stand, I will speak truth to power, I will bend a knee to no one but my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, and I will fight for this land that I love with everything I have.
