

Rhonda Billings is a retired elementary music teacher. She is married to Billy (44 years) who is a 6th generation rancher in Grant County. Together they raised 4 children and currently have 11 Grandchildren and 3 Great-granddaughters. She is currently the President of the children's primary program in her church.

Politically, she has been actively involved in many successful campaigns, including the November 2024 campaigns where all 6 Republicans running for office won. Historically Grant County has been blue.

She has served in the following positions:

State Central Committee 2017-present

County Rules Committee Chair 2025- present

County Secretary 2019-2025