

Sadie F. Boyer Bio

My name is Sadie F. Boyer and I reside in Taos, New Mexico. I am bilingual, speaking, reading and writing both English and Spanish. I am a retired teacher of 33 years, 29 of those years educating children in the Taos community and the remaining four years as Director and Head Teacher of a Presbyterian elementary school in Chimayo, NM. I served as Taos County Probate Judge and have given my time and talents to others through community service. I served as Commissioner and Treasurer of the Acequia Madre del Rio Grande. I have served on the Taos Historic Museums Board as Treasurer and Bylaw's Chair. This Board includes The Blumenschein Home & Gallery and the Hacienda de los Martinez. I have worked with children, parents, grandparents and other family members throughout my career. I believe in helping others and enjoy working with people.

Currently, I am the Church Administrator for the Ranchos Presbyterian Church and serve on several committees.

I have served the New Mexico Federated Republican Women in many roles such as: MELP Literacy Chair, NMFRW 2nd Vice-Chair, NMFRW Nominating Committee Chair, NMFRW Parliamentarian, Region A Director, and By-Laws Chair. I have taken each role seriously and did the best job possible.

Currently, I am the Republican Party of Taos County Chairwoman, serving as 2nd VP for many years. I am also a SCC member and President of the Taos County Federated Republican Women, where we have earned several national awards for our work and dedicated service to the Republican Party and its platform. I have worked thousands of hours in helping Republican candidates and registering voters. I serve on the Absentee Ballot Board and the Taos County Board of Registration.

As a member of the RPNM Rules committee, I dedicate my time and energy to do the work needed to succeed and serve the Republican Party of New Mexico.

Respectfully submitted,

Sadie F. Boyer

Sadie F. Boyer