

Shona has always had a passion for politics, which became action-driven when she became Vice President of the Los Alamos Federated Republican Women in 2018. Since then, she has served in numerous leadership roles within the Federated Republican Women (FRW) and has steadily expanded her involvement in county and state GOP activities.

Highlights of her background include:

- Born and raised in New Mexico
- Past President and Vice President, Los Alamos Federated Republican Women (2018–2020)
- Past President, Doña Ana County Federated Republican Women (2022–2024)
- Current 2nd Vice President and Region C Director, New Mexico FRW (2024–2025)
- Current Central Committee (CCC) and State Central Committee (SCC) member